

These Fallen Heroes carried the wings of an eagle on their chest.

And while the eagle represents our country and the freedoms our enemies fear,

This spirit dove reminds us that angels are always near.

So let us whisper our words to this angel that will reach the heavens from each and everyone.

That these fallen heroes duties are just beginning and their flight has just begun.
